Dear God -

This is, by precise count, the third letter I have started to you + your good wife. Each time something has come up - garden, work, taxes, etc. We have had quite a busy time since the Exeter festivities. Had a magnificent garden. My luck was magnificent even for a beginner.

The real news is that we have an heir in process. Jane has felt simply miserable but the odds are that she will be feeling much better in a month or so, however, to date, the little cuss has been cutting up something fierce. About the middle of April is the time. This is strictly family news for a while so don't pass it about. Ask Cary not to mention it at dinner especially. Hooray!

For the past couple of weeks I have spent every spare minute canning food. We got a huge pressure cooker and, in Jane's incapacity, I have taken charge. Results: 14 pts. peaches; 16 pts. tomatoes; 12 pts carrots; 16 pts beets. This is only a beginning.

We are all amazed at the news about your being moved. Can you tell what it means? How come they are still training for that kind of fighting? Do you know, and, if so, can you tell, where you will probably go and when? Mother said Ken was an article about it in the July 19, "Life", but I couldn't find it in that issue. Please give me all the dope you can. Will you be a major? Is your outfit a hot one? What is your job? It must be tough to give up your apartment and especially hard for Cory not to know where you are going to be next. I can say we don't like it much. I still don't see how a guy with eyes like yours can get in a combat outfit. Hell, they wouldn't even draft you!

John seems to be doing OK, according to reports. I don't understand how anyone can be as funny as he is, all the time. He wrote me a letter about the bed bugs at Bross, that was a riot of the #1 order. I can't get any accurate information as to exactly what he's doing or what stage he's in or where he goes next. Do you know?

Mother says old Angus arrived and that he's quite a beast. He will get good care. Pez says he will probably take him, certainly is Howtkow is sure.

Please write soon, give Cory our love and also let us know your future and her present address.

Old Crow et al. send their love

yours,

George

P.S. What do you prefer for an usher's present? - Tray or Cocktail shaker?
