

Gordon my own -

Today came the letter written before and after the fine telephone call. I am extremely sorry about Col. Fayam. Where is he now, and was he demoted or just transferred?

I'm glad you liked the books - it was the most random assortment possible to fit your every mood.

The dictionary and crossword-puzzle books are obvious collasies. Even if you don't have time to read, it's much pleasanter to know you have something you can read if you get a minute. Soon I'll have to send off a Christmas package to you, cooperating with the post office's pleas.

You must promise faithfully and on your honor to open nothing until Christmas day. I love you love you love you, my husband. Please let my prayers and dreams come true.

At last I have finished Ulysses and my paper on him. He is a much finer book than many people give him credit for being. I'd like to have a chance to spend a lot of time studying it. At the moment, however, I am deep in the Forsyte Saga which - shame slime - I had never read before. So far I am loving it, though I don't know exactly what kind of a term paper I'll write on it. As for my other two papers - I haven't even begun on them. Are there any art books which you don't have and would like? (PLEASE answer this question, as Vassar's bookstore has an excellent supply which is beginning to dwindle - and they're next to impossible to get now.) Do you have Rufus Morey's book on Medieval art? I can't remember what else they have, but I'll get any you want me to if you'll tell me which ones. I think they're fine things for you to have, my arty one.

I adore you quite passionately and am mentally enfolded in your embrace.

I love you forever -
Cary

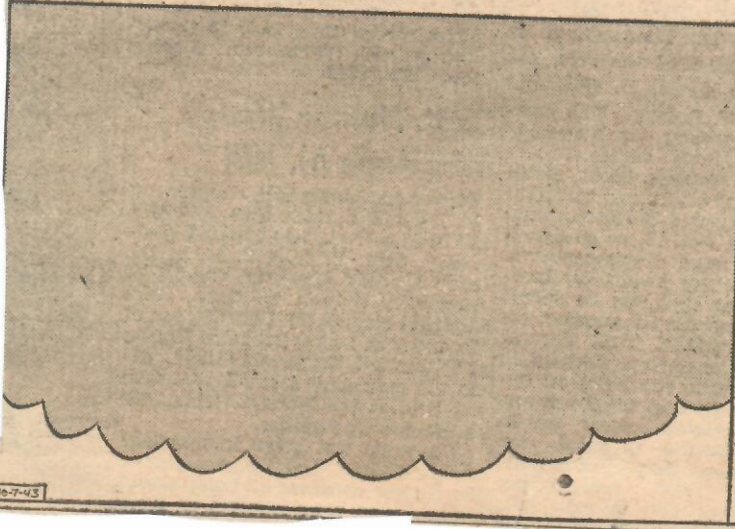

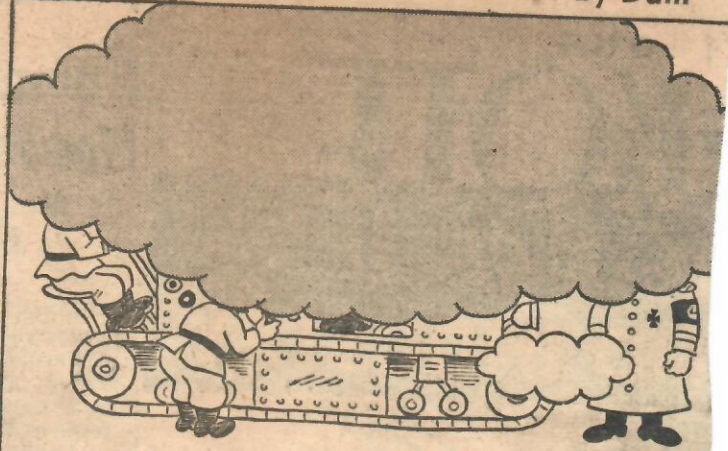

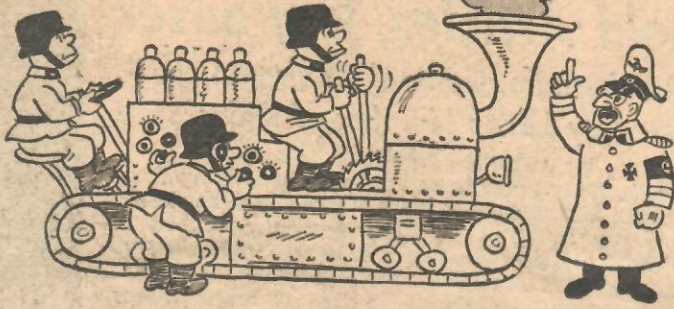

Chris. Count Browning
↓

How do I love thee? Let me count the ways.
I love thee to the depth and breadth and height
My soul can reach, when feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being and ideal Grace.
I love thee to the level of everyday's
Most quiet need, by sun and candlelight.
I love thee freely, as men strive for Right;
I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise.
I love thee with the passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith.
I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints - I love thee with the breath,
Smiles, tears, of all my life! - and if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death.

WHODUNNIT?

By Dahl

NAZIS ADMIT SABOTAGE OF THEIR
FOG PRODUCING APPARATUS USED TO OBSCURE AIR RAID TARGETS
(NEWS ITEM)

idge, Lt. Edward D...
USAAF, and Mrs. Reading, Pa.

TRONG

SKIN-KOTE

"Work Gloves"

AND INDUSTRY

Maintains healthy skin

Is SKIN-KOTE Pleasant To Use?

Armstrong SKIN-KOTE is greaseless and

N. E. Farm and Garden

Committee Seeks China, Books, Household Articles, Old Silver

Mrs. Cunningham, General Chairman, Is Assisted by Large Number of Aides

By ALISON ARNOLD

Nowadays, with many families on the move or making temporary wartime living arrangements, there is great need for household furnishings, equipment and other articles at modest cost. An excellent opportunity to supplement such lacks and to find a number of unusual, attractive purchases, some suitable for gifts, is offered at the annual rumtique sale, which the New England Farm and Garden Association will hold Tuesday, Oct. 19, from 10 to 4 o'clock at Horticultural Hall.

Mrs. John H. Cunningham is general chairman of the sale, assisted by Mrs. James D. Colt and Mrs. Charles F. Rowley. The committee is appealing for household articles, old silver, china, bric-a-brac, jewelry, pictures, books, clothing, shoes, toys and other contributions to be delivered at Horticultural Hall, Monday, Oct. 18, or earlier, if preferred, by special arrangement.

There are eager buyers for literally everything that can be spared from one household for another, the committee reminds. And sharing makes adjustments less difficult in these times while providing an immediate fund to help the Farm and Garden Association carry on its year-round services to rural New England women. As part of autumn housekeeping and reorganizing, many members and friends have been setting aside whatever articles articles earlier than Oct. 18 should telephone the Farm and Garden Shop, KEN. 0042.

Capt. Hunter Weds Miss Anne M. Hill

Miss Anne Marie Hill, daughter of Col. Ira B. Hill, CAC, USA, and Mrs. Hill of New York, was married Wednesday, Sept. 29, at 4 P. M. in the Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel of Emmanuel Church to Capt. John Bradford Hunter, 2d, USMCR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bradford Hunter of Tattenhall, North Marshfield. After the ceremony a small reception was held at the Hotel Sheraton for the immediate families.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who is commanding the harbor defenses of Long Island Sound. She wore a gown of ivory

THE NEW CENT-PIECE THAT LOOKS LIKE A DIME -

10-12-43

DAHL

Arts History Series Begins Oct. 19

Rhode Island Writer Slated First Speaker

By ALISON AENOLD

Although the future is very much in the minds of all of us these days, the past has a very definite fascination. Again, this year, a History of Arts and Crafts class will be held in the Atkinson-Lancaster Room of the New England Genealogical Society, 9 Ashburton place. The lectures are once more under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Curtis Howes and will take place Tuesdays at 11 A. M.

The fall session will begin Oct. 19 when Philomena Hart of Providence, writer and lecturer, has chosen as her subject, "A Genteel Lady Steps Out." The meeting on Nov. 2 will be held at the Museum of Fine Arts when China's contribution to the world of art, as illustrated by the collection in the Museum, will be discussed by Harriet Dickinson Tomita of Jamaica Plain.

On Nov. 16 "The Strange Experiences of the Shakers of the Old Town of Harvard" will be described by Clara Endicott Sears of Boston

(Photo by Keller)

'SPECIAL GIFTS' USHERS—Some of the attractive members of the young usherettes who performed their duties at the Special Gifts dinner of the Greater Boston

ited

za

Conce-<sup>ts</sup>

teenth

Season

ducts,

a of ans ical Comedy

articipation.

R STAMPS)

STAMPS, PLEASE!

MILITARY EFFICIENCY

By Dahl

NAVAL OFFICER REARRANGES TYPEWRITER KEYS AND SPEEDS UP STENOGRAPHERS TO 180 WORDS A MINUTE. (NEWSITEM)

10-11-43

Dahl

Meats Replace us This Week

For Bacon Purposes

For a family of four, a variety of meats, as we did last week. Lots of different kinds, combining with leftovers, half-pound of bacon, one, plus a pound and a half.

Balance in the new sliced meats, or a can of half-pound of bacon well worth the three dollar meat or a sandwich for cooking or, in muffins and spice made with bacon fat, watch the amount of

Creole Lamb Chops, my's casserole account—and either of those for the Creole Sauce, our favorite bake shop stamps more or less "salting away" canned

FRIDAY DINNER

Lamb Shoulder Chops
Sliced Potatoes with Sautéed Parsley

FRIDAY DINNER

*Stuffed Haddock Fillets
Lemon Garnish
Scalloped Potatoes
Molded Vegetable Aspic Salad
Tomato French Dressing
*Steamed Carrot Pudding
*Orange Sauce

SATURDAY DINNER

*Baked Lima Beans with
Crisp Bacon Slices
Grilled Tomatoes
Corn Bread
Tossed Green Vegetable Salad
Chutney Dressing
Open Apple Pie with Coffee

SUNDAY DINNER

Baked Slice of Ham
*Maple Sweet Potatoes
Cauliflower Dressed with Cream
*Cranberry Salad Ring
Cream Dressing
Refrigerator Rolls
Homemade Vanilla Ice Cream
*Chocolate Crisps

*Recipes will be printed throughout the week.

BUDGET $14

POINTS (BROWN) Points.

1 Pound stew beef (boneless) 10

Make What We Have Do Fewer Dresses Now Even for Daughter

By ANGELO PATRI

"Mother, I just must have a new outfit for the dance. It's a benefit affair, you know, and I'm doing a solo number. I simply must have a new dress, slippers, everything."

Mother looked troubled. Then she shook her head and said, "Daughter, you must make what you have do. I can't have your father troubled about bills. He has extra taxes to pay, the bills are higher daily, everything costs more, money goes faster than ever and little to show for it."

"We have to contribute to the war work. You can't just send any old thing to people who have been left homeless, comfortless, sick. This is no time to think of one's self first. You'll have to make out with what you've got."

"But I've got nothing. Simply nothing."

"Use your ingenuity. Make a project of it and see what you can do. You'll surprise yourself."

"I can't see it."

"You'd better, daughter. There are going to be fewer new dresses and slippers and all that go with them from now on. We are maintaining a large army and it will take money that used to go to pleasure and some of what used to go for necessities as well. You may just settle down to making what you have do as your grandmother used to do. Haven't you

Women See

G.T.K. 309 R. Vassar Poughkeepsie N.Y.

CSK to G.T.K. 1943/1/20

Scanned

POUGHKEEPSIE
NOV 20
5:30 PM
1943
N.Y.

AIR MAIL

Air Mail

Capt. Gordon T. Kinder, O-413 085
Service Battery, 693 F.A. Bn.
A.P.O. 182-A, Unit 14
Postmaster
Los Angeles, California