ordon Darling,

It's very late so this will be short - we took a bus to the beach this afternoon + had sun and swim. I miss you. I think the last time I was on a beach was on our honeymoon! That was fun wasn't it, running about on the sand with practically a whole beach to ourselves. We must do it again sometime. Life is good when I'm with you. Saw Emily for a few minutes this morning. She's nice, sent her best to you. I love you. Didn't we have a fine

Weymouth? A rosy glow surrounds it in my mind. It certainly had funny elements - in fact most of it - the red light, the ball-room - dining - room - everything about the old ladies' home. And even so I loved you - well, well, just goes to show we both have senses of humor. I haven't yet written Mrs. Lewellin, but will soon. Soon I'll be on my way to Philadelphia, then Bridgeport.
'T would be nice to have you along, m'love. Please forgive me if I stop now. I'll write a long long letter tomorrow. Goodnight darling -

Love You.
7 - oh my!

Your own
Cary
